

SOMERSET HILLS EDUCATION FOUNDATION

Dedicated to Supporting Bedwell Elementary School, Bernardsville Middle School, and Bernards High School

Message From The Board of Trustees

The Education Foundation enjoyed another banner year, achieving our best performance in funds raised and grants awarded during a very difficult economic climate. Good progress was realized against our annual goals:

- The 7th annual Chili Cook-Off was another overwhelming success – attendance once again approached 700 and net proceeds have exceeded $500,000 from the seven events.
- Our annual fundraising campaigns exceeded last year's level by 20%, including contributions from individual donors, district staff, and our Staff Tribute Program.
- SHEF's website and Electronic Newsletter allow us to effectively communicate more information to you. Visit us at www.shefnj.org to learn more.
- As part of the district's strategic plan, we are still working to extend SHEF's umbrella to include a BHS Alumni Association, an Endowment Fund, and Performing Arts Center events. We welcome volunteers who are interested in helping to form these new initiatives.

As always, the most satisfying aspect of our work has been the Foundation's ability to fund district-wide programs – a record of almost $119,000 this year. By directing $28,568 to fund 23 classroom project grants, we have now disbursed $261,000 to 187 projects during our thirteen years. The Foundation devoted an additional $90,000, almost the entirety of the Chili Cook-Off net revenue, to fund materials required to provide wireless connection throughout the school district.

SHEF continues its drive to provide enhanced technology for the benefit of district students and staff – in the last five years, we have directed more than $400,000 to this objective.

We wish to thank the district staff for their commitment to education – your exciting innovative ideas give students difference-making experiences. And finally we wish to thank this year's 400 contributors – your generous support allows us to continue to make the district's educational offerings special. We hope that even more of our readers will become donors this year.

SHEF Funds A Wireless District

On May 19, 2010, The Somerset Hills Education Foundation (SHEF) presented The Somerset Hills School District with a check for $90,000 to fund the entire cost of materials required to provide wireless capability throughout the school district. SHEF is excited to make this grant because it will complement our previous technology gifts and will impact all students, staff, and parents.

Once installed in September, there will be wireless access from every part of every building. Students, teachers, and parents will be able to use their own laptop computers, connected through the district network, during and after the school day. Previously donated Computers on Wheels (COWs) laptop carts will be effective throughout all buildings, expanding their use.

The district is particularly excited about the impact the wireless initiative will have on virtual learning opportunities. Wireless will enable students to go beyond the classroom doors of the SHSD and participate in virtual courses and other learning experiences from various learning institutions...the possibilities are endless!

This grant continues SHEF's drive to provide enhanced technology for the benefit of district students and staff. When our $90,000 technology grant is combined with earlier classroom grants, it brings SHEF's support of the district to $119,000 for the year, the largest single funding year in SHEF's history. We are pleased that we have been able to deliver $545,000 over the last 5 years and $660,000 during our 13 years of existence.

Going Green in the Computer Lab

A new "Green" lab opened at Bernards High School during the week of April 12. With four processors used to run all twenty computers, the lab is very energy efficient.

The "Green" lab is set up using NComputing technology. Charles Young, the SHSD Information Technology Manager, explained that "today's PCs are so powerful that the vast majority of applications only use a small fraction of the computer's capacity. NComputing taps this unused capacity so that it can be simultaneously shared by multiple students. Each student's monitor, keyboard, and mouse connect to the shared PC through a small and very durable NComputing access device."

The new technology saves 74% on hardware, reducing the energy footprint by nearly 90% per user. The devices create barely any heat, which reduces the need for air-conditioning. Due to the efficiency of this lab, the energy savings in just one year can pay for the NComputing virtual desktops.

Observing students in the Green Lab: Charles Young, Information Technology Manager; Valerie Zanardi, SHEF Chairman; Jacqueline Oswald, BHS Librarian; Pete Miller, SHSD Superintendent

The new lab will have a reducing impact on both the school's budget and the environment as well. This wonderful lab was possible thanks to donations by the Somerset Hills Education Foundation (SHEF).

Within five years of the opening of the lab, 330 gallons of gasoline will be saved, as well as one metric ton of coal. The metric tons of carbon dioxide emissions will be reduced to nine. Forty-five trees will be planted to offset the CO<sub>2</sub> emissions. The lab will also save 0.5 metric tons of e-waste.

The librarian, Jacqueline Oswald, is very excited about the new lab as "it allows a lot more people to be in the library at once." It is open for all students or a teacher can sign up to bring in a class.

Winner of NJ Library Association Award

Bernardsville Public Library won a Public Relations Award for its publication of "A Town History: The Story of Bernardsville" at the 2010 meeting of the New Jersey Library Association. The attractive booklet includes vintage photos with accompanying text aimed at children eight to ten years of age. Its printing was funded by a grant from the Somerset Hills Education Foundation (SHEF).

Youth Services Librarian Michaele Casey has seen many children attempt to research their town history. None of the library's information is geared to the eight to ten-year-old age group. She approached the volunteers in the Local History room. At the same time, a proposal was made to the fourth-grade teachers at Bedwell to see if they were interested in collaborating with their students. Eventually, a successful grant application was made to SHEF. The students answered the question of the "Top Ten Things Every Kid Should Know About Bernardsville." Photos were gathered, and text was written and checked. It was then formatted and edited by Readers' Services Coordinator Pat Kennedy-Grant and Program & Publicity Coordinator Madelyn English.

On April 27, both Ms. Kennedy-Grant and Ms. English were on hand at the NJLA meeting along with Debra Wilkins, the representative of the school district, as well as the Somerset Hills Education Foundation, to accept the award.

"A Town History' is not only a resource for children in Bernardsville, but is also a nice memento of the place where they grew up," said Ms. Casey, "It was a collaborative effort that involved three generations of residents, and we are grateful to SHEF and everyone who contributed."

The books are now for sale at the library for $3.50.

2010 Chili Cook-Off

Many local businesses came forward as sponsors to make 2010 another successful year concerning the SHEF Chili Cook-Off. This year Ellen Clark and Laura Ruggeri chaired the event who, though they still have strong ties to the school district, actually have no children enrolled. The time and effort they gave to this major fundraiser was truly an act of love to ensure that students in our towns have a chance at the best educational opportunities possible.

This year the committee maintained the mission to attract sponsorships to underwrite the event. SHEF was encouraged by the response of 23 sponsors totaling $25,639. The donor list included: Gold Level- Bernardsville Print Center, Goldman Sachs, Meera & Vijay Singh, Penelope Ayers; Silver Level- Anonymous Friend of SHEF, Peapack-Gladstone Bank, Steve Strambi & Dan Petrie of Wells Fargo Advisors; Bronze Level- Bollinger Insurance, Camp Bow Wow, Debra Ross of Weichert, Realtors, Diamond Dream Fine Jewelers, Gary's Wine & Marketplace, Gordie Jamieson of US Trust, Bank of America, HUB International Personal Insurance, Ken Rent, Olcott Square Interiors, Peg Carton & Jill Cannan of Keller Williams Towne Square Realty, Phillips & Fredricks Jewelers, Raritan Liquors, Rossi Management and Consulting, Somerset Hills Education Association (SHEA), Starbucks, and 56<sup>0</sup> Wine. This corporate sponsorship allowed all revenues to be funneled directly back to the three schools in the district in the form of grants and technology initiatives. SHEF is very appreciative to all the local businesses, volunteers, and attendees who made this event so successful.

Vijay Singh, creator of the incredible "Vealtown Jesse," designed and built a photo booth for this year's Chilli Cook-Off. Entertainment also included a Casino Room with Black Jack tables, a Cow Toss game, and a Horseshoe Toss run by URWA.

Twenty-four area chefs served up chili to the 700 partygoers, another sell-out year for SHEF. The winners for this 2010 Chili Cook-Off were:

Celebrity Chefs' Choice: 1st Place – The Somerset Hillbillies (Cliff MacTavish and Matt Donnelly); 2nd Place – Chaneveen "Neeti" Bindra. Best Display: 1st Place (tie) – Catering with Love from Kings, Gladstone Tavern; 2nd Place – Pat Wry and Bill Moytko. Best Restaurant: 1st Place – Soup Shoppe; 2nd Place – Gladstone Tavern. People's Choice: 1st Place – The Somerset Hillbillies (Cliff MacTavish and Matt Donnelly); 2nd Place – Soup Shoppe.

SHEF would again like to express its gratitude to our hosts, Susan and Bob Landmesser, who generously welcome SHEF to utilize The Carriage House on their estate.
